

I am writing in support of RM-1066. Low power television is a valuable asset in rural communities that needs to be able to grow and evolve to provide enhanced service.